

BUNDESPRESSEAMT
Theodor-Haubach-Saal
Dorotheenstraße 84, 10117 Berlin

JOHN F. KENNEDY INSTITUTE
Lansstraße 7 - 9, 14195 Berlin

1 Piaggio: Italian Restaurant
Königin-Luise-Straße 44

2 Really Good Life: Burger
Königin-Luise-Straße 44

3 Luise: Restaurant and Beer Garden
Königin-Luise-Straße 40-42

4 Baci's: Coffee Shop - Bagels, Soup, and Snacks
Königin-Luise-Straße 26

5 Café & Bäckerei Kornfeld: Bakery
Königin-Luise-Straße 38

6 Eßkultur: Museum Café - Lunch and Snacks
Lansstraße 8

John F. Kennedy-Institut
für Nordamerikastudien

BALANCING THE SCALES
THE UNITED STATES IN AN AGE OF INEQUALITY

German Society for American Studies
Political Science Section

ANNUAL MEETING
NOVEMBER 10 TO 12, 2016

DFG Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft

1956 60 2016
Deutsche
Atlantische
Gesellschaft
e.V.

Deutsche Gesellschaft
für Amerikastudien

Atlantische
Akademie
 Rheinland-Pfalz

THURSDAY: NOVEMBER 10, 2016

Theodor-Haubach-Saal, Bundespresseamt

16:00

Opening Panel - U.S. Presidential Elections

Prof. Irwin Collier, PhD (Freie Universität Berlin)

Prof. Andreas Falke
(Friedrich-Alexander-Universität, Erlangen-Nürnberg)

Prof. Jessica Gienow-Hecht (Freie Universität Berlin)

Kent Logsdon
(Deputy Chief of Mission, United States Embassy, Berlin)

FRIDAY: NOVEMBER 11, 2016

John-F.-Kennedy Institute

9:00 - 9:30
Registration

9:30 - 11:00

Film

Curtis Chin:
"Tested"

11:00
Welcome

11:30 - 12:30
Opening Address

Michael Dreyer:
"The idea of (in)-equality in American political thought"

12:30 - 14:00
Lunch

14:00 - 17:30 (15:30 - 16:00 Coffee)
Panel I - Inequalities at Home

Martin Thunert:

"Equitable growth, mobility or opportunities for all? - How progressive, conservative, and centrist think tanks and research groups discuss income inequality in the US and elsewhere"

Michael Oswald
"Tipping the scales strategically -
Promoting inequality through a mass movement"

Nathalie Rauscher:
"The changing discourse on social inequality in the United States under the influence of the
'sharing economy' and digitization"

Betsy Leimbiger:
"The wider implications of health inequalities and disparities in the United States"

18:00 - 19:30

Keynote Address I

Michael C. Herron:
"Mortality, incarceration and African-Americans - Disenfranchisement in the contemporary US"

SATURDAY: NOVEMBER 12, 2016

John-F.-Kennedy Institute

9:00 - 12:30 (10:30 - 11:00 Coffee)

Panel II - Reproducing and Mitigating Inequalities

Katharina Metz & Sophie Spieler:
"Inequality and women's higher education - Wellesley College in historical perspective"

Mathias Enders:
"Is college worth it? - the rising costs of college education as a driver of inequality"

Patrick Horst:
"Not all candidates are equal - they don't even have equal chances - Inequalities in political ambition and political success in the US"

Jörg Hebenstreit:
"The translation of economic in political inequality - a campaign finance case study"

Christoph Haas:
"Voting rights revisited"

12:30 - 14:00
Lunch

14:00 - 18:00 (15:30 - 16:00 Coffee)
Panel III - The US and Global Inequalities

Curd Knüpfer:
"Politics stops at the ports: Tracing the politicization of U.S. trade policy"

Christian Güse:
"Built-in inequality? - A critical analysis of technical innovation and state actions in the US logistics sector"

Lora Viola:
"Inequality in international organizations"

Puneet Bhasin:
"Can neoliberalism really explain rising inequality?
Examining the post-1980s transformation of the US economy and financialization as a contending concept"

18:00 - 19:30
Keynote Address II

Wendy Brown:
"Neoliberalism, financialization and democracy - Ten theses"

ORGANIZERS

Prof. Dr. Christian Lammert
Email: christian.lammert@fu-berlin.de
Prof. Dr. Boris Vormann
Email: boris.vormann@fu-berlin.de
Dr. Curd B. Knüpfer
Email: curd.knuepfer@fu-berlin.de
Dr. David Sirakov
Email: sirakov@atlantische-akademie.de

REGISTRATION

<http://www.atlantische-akademie.de/dgfa-2016>