

ghi

German
Historical Institute
Washington

Deutsche Gesellschaft
für Amerikastudien

W | Wilson
Center

HISTORY AND
PUBLIC POLICY PROGRAM

INTERNATIONAL
INTELLIGENCE
HISTORY
ASSOCIATION

Knowledge in the Shadows

Intelligence, Hidden Pasts, and Historians in the U.S. and Germany

German Historical Institute Spring Lecture Series 2024

February 22, 2024 | 6:00pm ET

A Frank and Open Discussion about the Secret World of Spying

Alexis Albion (International Spy Museum)

April 18, 2024 | 6:00pm ET

Spy vs. Spy: West German
Counterintelligence and GDR Espionage

Michael Wala (Ruhr-Universität Bochum)

March 21, 2024 | 6:00pm ET

From Abundant Papers to Limited Pixels:
Digitization and Intelligence Reduction in the Brazilian Serviço Nacional de Informações
(SNI) in the late 1970s

Debora Gerstenberger (University of Cologne)

May 23, 2024 | 6:00pm ET

The History and Future of State Secrecy

Matthew Connelly (Columbia University)

All lectures will be in-person at GHI Washington and will be made available as video recordings for online viewing. For more information and registration, please visit www.ghi-dc.org/2024-spring-series

Credit: Photograph of Kryptos, an encrypted sculpture at the CIA headquarters in Langley, VA. The Carol M. Highsmith Archive, Library of Congress.