

2026 PhD Forum: Call for Submissions

34th Annual Conference of The German Society for Contemporary Drama and Theatre in English (CDE) in Prague, 4-7 June 2026

The German Society for Contemporary Drama and Theatre in English (CDE) invites submissions to the PhD Forum that will take place as part of the society's annual conference in Prague, 4-7 June 2026.

As an organisation dedicated to assist and support graduate students working in the area of contemporary drama in English, CDE annually hosts a graduate colloquium in the days immediately prior to each regular annual conferences.

During the forum, students are able to introduce and discuss their research projects as well as individual chapters from their dissertations with each other in an informal and relaxed atmosphere.

Students will be selected according to the following two criteria:

- the relevance of their research project to the general remit of CDE
- the overall number of applicants

For more information and the application form, please visit

<https://contemporarydrama.de/phd-forum/>

Deadline: 25 January 2026