

Call For Papers

Literatur in Wissenschaft und Unterricht (LWU | neue folge) invites contributions for its upcoming issues. LWU is a peer-reviewed academic journal published twice a year by the English Department at Kiel University (Christian-Albrechts-Universität zu Kiel) and printed by Königshausen & Neumann in Würzburg, Germany. Each new issue is also available as an e-book on utb.elibrary.

We welcome original research articles, essays, and reviews that explore literature, culture, and media in anglophone (UK, USA, Canada, New English Literatures) and German-speaking contexts (Germany, Austria, Switzerland). Our focus lies on making current academic research accessible for both university and school teaching, fostering a dialogue between scholarship and educational practice.

Articles may:

- discuss general aspects of literary and cultural studies,
- offer close readings of specific texts with relevance to current research debates,
- introduce innovative theoretical, methodological, or didactic approaches,
- bridge the gap between academic discourse and classroom application.

Theme Issues

Regularly, LWU publishes special theme issues under the supervision of expert guest editors. We welcome proposals for future theme issues and guest editorships.

Submission Guidelines

Contributions may be submitted in English or German.

Submissions must be original and must not have been previously published or submitted elsewhere.

By submitting a manuscript, authors confirm that all co-authors and the institution(s) at which the work originated have given their consent to publication.

All submissions undergo peer review.

Manuscripts should be submitted via e-mail by February 2, 2026.

For further information on formalities please check our style sheet on our website (<https://www.lwu.uni-kiel.de/>).

Contact

Submissions and proposals can be sent to the editorial board at the English Department, Kiel University (lwu@anglistik.uni-kiel.de).
