

The Chair of Organizational Behavior of the Alfred-Weber-Institute (AWI) for Economics at the University of Heidelberg is looking for participants for a study on the topic of

Time Use, Networking Behavior & Visibility in Academia.

Participants (female/male/diverse) should be at least at the Doctoral phase of their academic career or beyond. The study will take place across disciplines and universities and is in English. The study consists of a survey (approximately 35 minutes) and an experimental session (approximately 40 minutes). Both parts of the study will take place online. Earnings will be on average 20 Euros per hour depending on decisions and performance in different tasks.

If you are interested in participating, please click on the following link to fill out the survey as the first part of our study:
